

JEFFERSONVILLE

The Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Howard are taking a carriage drive to Marshfield. They will also visit at Northfield and Montpelier. Mrs. Maria Atkins of Hardwick was here several days the past week preparing to erect a monument in the Jeffersonville cemetery in memory of Abraham Atkins, her late husband.

Paul Peterson of Vermont was called here last week. He is the brother of his father, John Peterson, who is now in Vermont. Miss Mattie Wilson has returned from Burlington and Miss Laura Page from Essex Junction.

The ladies of the South Cemetery association will serve a supper at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wood on Wednesday evening, June 5, from five to eight o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Parker of Newport are visiting their daughter, Mrs. P. L. Scott. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powell May 27. Hadley Fuller from Jamestown, Dakota, brother of the late Horace Fuller, is the guest of Mrs. Clara Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Melvin returned from New York City Tuesday. Mr. Melvin is in the city on business. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Smith are in the city on business. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Smith are in the city on business.

Miss Ruth Steinhauser passed Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. H. A. Hatch. Mr. and Mrs. Justin Leach of Hyde Park were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Leach over Sunday. Mrs. Curtis has returned from a few days in Johnson. The Memorial day exercises at the Congregational Church Sunday morning were largely attended. A very interesting address was given by the Rev. Dr. Hardy of Morrisville. Mrs. P. A. Story is visiting relatives in North Williston. W. M. Smith was in Waterbury and Burlington Tuesday and Wednesday. Exercises by the school children with an address by Pastor E. C. Cook will be given at the church Sunday afternoon. George Foster and wife of Keene, N. H., were in town Tuesday and Wednesday. Sidney Skinner returned from Boston Tuesday night. Mrs. Duba, who recently purchased the large farm of H. M. Ellsworth, has sold the farm to Leslie Church. He will take possession at once. Miss Mary Smith of Burlington is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Wakefield. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cutler of Cambridge visited Mr. and Mrs. George P. Woodbury Sunday. Fred Lecker of Hardwick was in town Monday. George May was at home from Montpelier over Sunday. George Cook of Hardwick passed Sunday with Mrs. Cook, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Dwyer. Miss Ellen Crane was in Waterbury Monday. The Rev. John L. Wesley of St. Johnsbury, supplied at Elmore and St. Albans. George May of Montpelier passed Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. H. Olmsted. George A. and George G. Morse and George W. Clark went Monday to Portland and Machias, Me., on a lumber deal. Mr. and Mrs. Isador Hart returned Monday from Waterbury, where they visited their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hart. The condition of Miss Mary Boyer at the Ruben sanatorium Monday was alarming, little hopes of her recovery being entertained.

Mrs. Henry Williams of Woodbury, who has been caring for her daughter, Mrs. Ella Williams, returned home Monday. Mr. W. Chaffee, principal of Peacham Academy, has completed his work there and returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Harmon of St. Johnsbury, accompanied by their sister, Miss Melrose, are here for a visit of two weeks with Mr. Warren's mother, Mrs. J. S. Warren. Mrs. Fred King and daughter, Mrs. Carrie Butler, of St. Johnsbury, will keep house for Henry Chandler. Mrs. E. Stevens and family have returned from several days in Richmond. The Jolly Nine left the Intermediate school, 25 to 21. The high school game Tuesday, P. A. S. victory, did not materialize as the latter side did not appear. Mrs. Emma Pomeroy went to Johnson Monday night to visit her father, John West. Mrs. W. J. Spencer, accompanied her guest for the past ten days, Miss Mattie Chandler, to her home in Hardwick Tuesday.

Miss Paul Hodge died at the Ruben sanatorium Monday evening from the effects of an operation. The remains were taken to Johnson Tuesday afternoon, the funeral taking place Wednesday afternoon. The Rev. W. M. Harris was gone to Williston, Me., where he will deliver the Memorial day address. Miss Louise Leach of Johnson is visiting her brother, Thomas Leach. W. E. Thompson of Springfield, Mass., has come here to locate if he can find a suitable home. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barrows and Miss Belle Barrows will go to North Troy today to get their sister, Mrs. Hugh Tuttle. Miss Barrows is accompanied by her sister, Miss Leach, and will remain away the greater part of the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Barrows will return home Saturday. While Mrs. Sarah Sears, her daughter, Alva Wilkins, her son Percy, and Miss Maggie Gowan were returning home in a two-horse stage Sunday night, a team, carrying a large bamboo fishing pole, struck out to the right, the pole striking one of the horses on the head which caused him to jump to one side throwing the surrey over a small embankment and overturning it. The surrey was demolished and the occupants received a severe shaking up. Mrs. Sears was quite badly injured and has been confined to her bed since the accident.

Students in the academy taking the commercial course visited the factory of the leading industries of the place Tuesday afternoon. They were most courteously treated and learned something of practical business. Mrs. Addie Jones of Chateaugay, N. Y., has purchased the Lewis Mayo farm and taken possession. The board of trade has voted to offer the Village Land & Improvement Co. $250 for a tract to be used for a road siding and for manufacturing purposes. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fisk of Barre are visiting his sister, Mrs. E. E. Sillway. Charles D. Rowe of Woodville, N. H., began work as clerk in L. A. Wadsworth's drug store Thursday morning. Mrs. Rowe has accompanied her husband to the new place. The exercises were held Wednesday afternoon in all the grades of the school. Mrs. M. J. Dunn has gone to Hardwick, where she will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Wilson. George G. Morse went to St. Johnsbury Wednesday to visit her cousin Miss Ida Stone until Saturday. L. E. Rowland of Jeffersonville has purchased of R. C. Rowland a house and repair business. Mr. Rowland intends going to Portland to have an operation upon his injured foot. Samuel White has gone to Barre to reside.

Belvidere. Loomis Davis is at work for E. Campbell, running his engine at the Corners. Vernal Coburn is at work for Fred Wood. The condition of Mrs. F. M. Wescomb remains about the same.

STOWE

Sunday morning the members of H. H. Smith Post and Auxiliary ordered a memorial service at the Congregational Church. According to the usual custom the Methodist Episcopal, Unitarian and Unitarian societies united with the Congregational society in a union service. The service was held at the home of A. G. Albion, assisted by the Rev. J. Q. Angell. Special music was rendered by a union choir under the leadership of A. H. Cheney with Miss Mary Cheney as organist. A sermon appropriate to the memorial service was delivered by Col. W. J. Cozens, who is conducting a series of union, evangelistic meetings here. A union prayer service was held at the home of Colonel Cozens conducted by the Rev. J. Q. Angell. The county farmers' association at its annual meeting Friday evening elected the following officers: President, P. D. Stafford; secretary, Dr. H. W. Barrows; executive committee, Dr. H. W. Barrows and C. O. Burr of Stowe. L. L. Sullivan was elected a member of the Union and grand children, Friday. He left his place to Norbert Peatman. Mrs. Peatman being his granddaughter, and he will reside with them. H. C. Akoley and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Quirk of Minneapolis, and Dr. and Mrs. Wesson of Waterbury were in Stowe Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Akoley left Stowe Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Akoley accompanied them to Waterbury, but will visit Stowe again.

Mrs. Mary Vearen died at an early hour Monday morning after a few hours' illness with apoplexy. Mrs. Vearen was born in Johnson in 1840 and was married in early life to Jerry Vearen. She was 67 years of age. She had lived in Stowe about 10 years. She leaves two daughters, Mary, wife of Dr. R. Smith, and Harriet, wife of F. L. Recor of Stowe. Her son, J. J. Vearen, died last September. She is also survived by five grandchildren and four brothers, Abram Burnett of Stowe, Charles Burnett of Pittsford, John Burnett of North Hyde Park and Joseph Burnett of Willimansett, and one sister, Mrs. Harriet Burnett of North Hyde Park. The funeral was held at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cora Vearen, where Mrs. Vearen resided, Wednesday at 2:00 p.m. Prof. L. R. Jones of Burlington, accompanied by C. L. Pollard of Washington, D. C., H. R. Pettit of Lake Charles, La., and C. A. Hawes of Boston were in Stowe Monday returning to Burlington in the afternoon by way of Newbury. Perhaps the first visitors of the season to Mt. Mansfield were Messrs. Hewitt, Pomeroy and Norwich of Burlington, who passed Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth, returning to Burlington from the other side. L. L. Sullivan's birthday last Friday was his 17th, on the 72nd as stated in Monday's Free Press. Q. M. Brush is building an addition to his house which will contain a kitchen, bedroom and bath room and is resumed work on the barn begun last year.

C. A. Abbott returned Saturday from Boston. Mrs. Abbott remains in Boston until Wednesday. Mrs. A. N. Terrell is improving slowly from a second attack of the grip. George Moody and Leon Butts of Moscow have returned from Jamestown where they have been employed as carpenters. G. S.

Eden. Mrs. George Gilchrist and son, Scott, of Newport, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Sumner. L. Sylvester and E. Richards are doing extensive repairs on their houses. Mrs. Orlan Adams is in poor health. George May of Montpelier is visiting relatives in Waterbury. An inch and a half of snow fell during Tuesday night. C. E. Hart is having a handsome granite monument placed on his lot in River Bank cemetery.

North Cambridge. Frank C. Thomas is confined to his bed with various pains. The Ladies' Aid gave an ice cream social at the church Tuesday evening and voted a bed quilt to the most popular doctor in town. Dr. E. R. Brady was the winner. They realized $2.25 on the quilt. The proceeds are to go toward buying a fence for the cemetery. There are other cemeteries in town which need fencing and Mrs. J. F. Wilcox of Jeffersonville has entered the Free Press voting contest to secure funds to fence the cemetery in Jeffersonville. If you are interested in this good work, send your subscription for the Free Press here and June 10. Get the biggest value for your money you ever bought and add a good cause at the same time. The ground was white with snow Wednesday morning.

Orange County. East Randolph. Miss Beale May is visiting her mother, Mrs. C. H. May. C. H. May is located in Ellsworth, Me., and Miss Beale will go there in about two weeks. Mrs. Martin Young is very ill. The Rev. E. C. Clark was in Brookfield Friday to officiate at the funeral of Henry Crockett. Miss Mary Kilian is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kilian. Miss Kimball was the guest of Florence Newell over Sunday.

Chelsea. The firm of Ormsley, Holmes & Co., which bought out the store of Charles P. Dickhous in July, 1903, has been dissolved by the retirement of Fred A. Ormsley, the senior partner. W. C. Holmes and H. N. Mattison will continue the business. The firm of Ormsley, Holmes & Co. was located in the Brown block. Mrs. B. Townsend is a member of the National bank of Orange county during the vacation. C. I. Hood of Lowell, Mass., has returned home after a short visit with his brother, William F. Hood. The Golden Rule Christian Endeavor Union, organized September 2, 1902, held its 26th convention at Chelsea Thursday, May 23. President, J. Wesley Mudgett of Bethel, vice-president, Oliver E. Burgess of Chelsea, secretary and treasurer, Miss Lillian L. Knowlton. Randolph superintendent junior work, Miss Nellie A. Flynn. Bethel executive committee, Miss Mabel E. Metcalf, South Royallston, and Miss Harriet Taggart, Gayville. There were addresses by the Rev. F. B. Kellogg of Waterbury, the Rev. L. W. Cromb of the Baptist Church, Albany, N. Y., the Rev. F. B. Kellogg of Randolph, and the Rev. J. C. Hyde of Dexter, Me. Essays were also read by Miss Metcalf, Ernest Chase of Rochester, Miss Inez Mary Granger of East Randolph, Miss Grace M. Young of Fair Haven and Mrs. John M. Comstock of Chelsea. The next convention will be held at South. At the annual meeting of the Village Improvement Association the following officers were chosen: President, A. W. Whitman; vice-president, E. A. Corwin; secretary and treasurer, W. H. Sprague; executive committee, S. C. Wilson, M. E. Hutchinson, H. N. Mattison. Chelsea Academy recently held its graduation exercises in the town hall, the young ladies and gentlemen receiving commendations with credit before a large audience. Memorial Sunday was observed in the Congregational Church, the Rev. Fred Daniels, pastor of the Methodist Church, preaching the sermon. A son was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Hale K. Darling, being the third boy in the family. Joseph H. Edwards has left town to engage in business in Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Edeline Noyes is passing a few days at the home of Alonzo H. Powers in Randolph. Mrs. J. H. Griffin of Manchester, N. H., is in town for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Goodrich with their little son came from Northfield Saturday to visit her father, Dr. A. B. Smith.

Bradford. Mrs. L. F. Hale and Mrs. Frederick Fletcher were in St. Johnsbury Thursday. Mrs. E. D. Robinson of Evansville, Ill., is the guest of Col. and Mrs. J. C. Stearns. Miss Anna Jenkins of New York City was

NEWPORT

Municipal court records were broken last week in the number of drinks. Dr. E. C. Burgess, Chelsea secretary and treasurer, Miss Lillian L. Knowlton. Randolph superintendent junior work, Miss Nellie A. Flynn. Bethel executive committee, Miss Mabel E. Metcalf, South Royallston, and Miss Harriet Taggart, Gayville. There were addresses by the Rev. F. B. Kellogg of Waterbury, the Rev. L. W. Cromb of the Baptist Church, Albany, N. Y., the Rev. F. B. Kellogg of Randolph, and the Rev. J. C. Hyde of Dexter, Me. Essays were also read by Miss Metcalf, Ernest Chase of Rochester, Miss Inez Mary Granger of East Randolph, Miss Grace M. Young of Fair Haven and Mrs. John M. Comstock of Chelsea. The next convention will be held at South. At the annual meeting of the Village Improvement Association the following officers were chosen: President, A. W. Whitman; vice-president, E. A. Corwin; secretary and treasurer, W. H. Sprague; executive committee, S. C. Wilson, M. E. Hutchinson, H. N. Mattison. Chelsea Academy recently held its graduation exercises in the town hall, the young ladies and gentlemen receiving commendations with credit before a large audience. Memorial Sunday was observed in the Congregational Church, the Rev. Fred Daniels, pastor of the Methodist Church, preaching the sermon. A son was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Hale K. Darling, being the third boy in the family. Joseph H. Edwards has left town to engage in business in Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Edeline Noyes is passing a few days at the home of Alonzo H. Powers in Randolph. Mrs. J. H. Griffin of Manchester, N. H., is in town for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Goodrich with their little son came from Northfield Saturday to visit her father, Dr. A. B. Smith.

Memorial services were held in the Methodist Church Sunday, the Rev. W. C. Allen presiding at the service. The church was draped with black and bunting. The choir rendered appropriate music and Miss Emily Gillette sang a solo. Mrs. Memorial of St. Albans, held in the Academy hall, Wednesday afternoon. Thursday the Memorial day address will be given by the Rev. Mr. Rowley of the Congregational Church at North Craftsbury. Mrs. Sawyer passed a part of her week in Burlington. Henry Smith is very ill. Benjamin Hoyt has taken possession of the store lately purchased by G. N. Amosworth.

North Troy. Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hammond started Sunday for the Jamestown exposition. They will also visit their daughter, Mrs. Varnum of Athens, Va. Mrs. J. H. Hunsinger is very low at his home in day with a complication of diseases, and his recovery is not expected. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ladd were visiting in Sutton. Q. and vicinity the later part of last week. Mrs. Kimball of Montpelier, Mass., is here again visiting her parents, or father, Col. Tracy, to resume his duties at the customs office in a few days. The Whitcomb drama corps played in the village Sunday.

Derby. Adam Robinson, little daughter, Abbie, is very ill with pneumonia. Henry Schofield fell from a roller Saturday and was taken up to the hospital. He had received a serious injury, but has proved only a very severe sprain. Memorial day exercises are to be held at Derby Line today. The school children have a part. Miss Mary Harris of East Burke is visiting in town this week. Forty years ago her father was a merchant in Derby. She and her brother are now in the mercantile business at East Burke. She has also been superintendent of schools and had other responsible offices there. Mrs. A. B. Hodge, passed several days in Coventry, her native town, last week, and attended the Orleans county W. C. T. U. convention. The annual meeting of the Congregational Church and society was held last evening in the church. Viola Webb, daughter of Mr. F. B. Cobb, at Mrs. Donaldson Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Forest Dow will return to New York this week. News of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Silver, at East Orange, N. J., has been received here.

Washington County. Montpelier. The funeral of Jerome W. Leland was held at ten o'clock Saturday morning at the home of the Rev. W. A. Davidson of Burlington officiating. Mr. Leland died Wednesday night of a complication of diseases, after an illness of two months. He was a well known and a native of Montpelier. Mr. Leland came to Berlin to reside 34 years ago, and for the past 20 years had conducted a milk route in this city, being the pioneer in that business. He is survived by a wife and one son, John E. Leland, of this city, also by one brother, W. E. Leland, who was associated with him in business.

Arthur G. Smith of Hardwick and Miss Elizabeth E. Bliss were married Wednesday evening by the Rev. L. F. Reed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bliss, parents of the bride on Winter street. Mr. Smith is a clothing merchant in Hardwick and was for several years in the store of the A. J. Parwell company in this city. The bride is a graduate of Montpelier Seminary and was for some time stenographer in the office of Jones Brothers at Barre. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Thursday for a carriage drive through the northern part of the State.

Mr. L. Lamplie, owner of the poor, makes strenuous objection to the practice of burying the bodies of dead horses in the grave yard at the city farm and leaving them unburied. In future the burial expenses of such animals will be three dollars, payable strictly in advance.

A letter was received Friday by State Attorney Benjamin Bates from Dr. R. H. Stone of the State laboratory at Burlington, which stated that an examination of the internal organs of Daniel Cardell of East Warren, showed no trace of poisoning and that Mr. Cardell undoubtedly died from apoplexy. This ends the case.

August, widow of Hiram B. Cross, died Thursday night at her home on Hard street, aged 77 years. For several years Mrs. Cross had been in poor health, but paralysis was the immediate cause of death. She leaves two sisters, Miss Mary B. Plisk of this city and Mrs. C. E. Gay of Barton Landing, also one brother, the Rev. P. B. Plisk of Plainfield. Funeral services were held at the late home of W. Richmond's—Harold Morse was

WASHINGTON COUNTY

Montpelier. The funeral of Jerome W. Leland was held at ten o'clock Saturday morning at the home of the Rev. W. A. Davidson of Burlington officiating. Mr. Leland died Wednesday night of a complication of diseases, after an illness of two months. He was a well known and a native of Montpelier. Mr. Leland came to Berlin to reside 34 years ago, and for the past 20 years had conducted a milk route in this city, being the pioneer in that business. He is survived by a wife and one son, John E. Leland, of this city, also by one brother, W. E. Leland, who was associated with him in business.

Arthur G. Smith of Hardwick and Miss Elizabeth E. Bliss were married Wednesday evening by the Rev. L. F. Reed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bliss, parents of the bride on Winter street. Mr. Smith is a clothing merchant in Hardwick and was for several years in the store of the A. J. Parwell company in this city. The bride is a graduate of Montpelier Seminary and was for some time stenographer in the office of Jones Brothers at Barre. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Thursday for a carriage drive through the northern part of the State.

Mr. L. Lamplie, owner of the poor, makes strenuous objection to the practice of burying the bodies of dead horses in the grave yard at the city farm and leaving them unburied. In future the burial expenses of such animals will be three dollars, payable strictly in advance.

A letter was received Friday by State Attorney Benjamin Bates from Dr. R. H. Stone of the State laboratory at Burlington, which stated that an examination of the internal organs of Daniel Cardell of East Warren, showed no trace of poisoning and that Mr. Cardell undoubtedly died from apoplexy. This ends the case.

August, widow of Hiram B. Cross, died Thursday night at her home on Hard street, aged 77 years. For several years Mrs. Cross had been in poor health, but paralysis was the immediate cause of death. She leaves two sisters, Miss Mary B. Plisk of this city and Mrs. C. E. Gay of Barton Landing, also one brother, the Rev. P. B. Plisk of Plainfield. Funeral services were held at the late home of W. Richmond's—Harold Morse was

Washington County. Montpelier. The funeral of Jerome W. Leland was held at ten o'clock Saturday morning at the home of the Rev. W. A. Davidson of Burlington officiating. Mr. Leland died Wednesday night of a complication of diseases, after an illness of two months. He was a well known and a native of Montpelier. Mr. Leland came to Berlin to reside 34 years ago, and for the past 20 years had conducted a milk route in this city, being the pioneer in that business. He is survived by a wife and one son, John E. Leland, of this city, also by one brother, W. E. Leland, who was associated with him in business.

Arthur G. Smith of Hardwick and Miss Elizabeth E. Bliss were married Wednesday evening by the Rev. L. F. Reed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bliss, parents of the bride on Winter street. Mr. Smith is a clothing merchant in Hardwick and was for several years in the store of the A. J. Parwell company in this city. The bride is a graduate of Montpelier Seminary and was for some time stenographer in the office of Jones Brothers at Barre. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Thursday for a carriage drive through the northern part of the State.

Mr. L. Lamplie, owner of the poor, makes strenuous objection to the practice of burying the bodies of dead horses in the grave yard at the city farm and leaving them unburied. In future the burial expenses of such animals will be three dollars, payable strictly in advance.

A letter was received Friday by State Attorney Benjamin Bates from Dr. R. H. Stone of the State laboratory at Burlington, which stated that an examination of the internal organs of Daniel Cardell of East Warren, showed no trace of poisoning and that Mr. Cardell undoubtedly died from apoplexy. This ends the case.

BURLINGTON

Memorial services were held in the Methodist Church Sunday, the Rev. W. C. Allen presiding at the service. The church was draped with black and bunting. The choir rendered appropriate music and Miss Emily Gillette sang a solo. Mrs. Memorial of St. Albans, held in the Academy hall, Wednesday afternoon. Thursday the Memorial day address will be given by the Rev. Mr. Rowley of the Congregational Church at North Craftsbury. Mrs. Sawyer passed a part of her week in Burlington. Henry Smith is very ill. Benjamin Hoyt has taken possession of the store lately purchased by G. N. Amosworth.

North Troy. Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hammond started Sunday for the Jamestown exposition. They will also visit their daughter, Mrs. Varnum of Athens, Va. Mrs. J. H. Hunsinger is very low at his home in day with a complication of diseases, and his recovery is not expected. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ladd were visiting in Sutton. Q. and vicinity the later part of last week. Mrs. Kimball of Montpelier, Mass., is here again visiting her parents, or father, Col. Tracy, to resume his duties at the customs office in a few days. The Whitcomb drama corps played in the village Sunday.

Derby. Adam Robinson, little daughter, Abbie, is very ill with pneumonia. Henry Schofield fell from a roller Saturday and was taken up to the hospital. He had received a serious injury, but has proved only a very severe sprain. Memorial day exercises are to be held at Derby Line today. The school children have a part. Miss Mary Harris of East Burke is visiting in town this week. Forty years ago her father was a merchant in Derby. She and her brother are now in the mercantile business at East Burke. She has also been superintendent of schools and had other responsible offices there. Mrs. A. B. Hodge, passed several days in Coventry, her native town, last week, and attended the Orleans county W. C. T. U. convention. The annual meeting of the Congregational Church and society was held last evening in the church. Viola Webb, daughter of Mr. F. B. Cobb, at Mrs. Donaldson Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Forest Dow will return to New York this week. News of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Silver, at East Orange, N. J., has been received here.

Washington County. Montpelier. The funeral of Jerome W. Leland was held at ten o'clock Saturday morning at the home of the Rev. W. A. Davidson of Burlington officiating. Mr. Leland died Wednesday night of a complication of diseases, after an illness of two months. He was a well known and a native of Montpelier. Mr. Leland came to Berlin to reside 34 years ago, and for the past 20 years had conducted a milk route in this city, being the pioneer in that business. He is survived by a wife and one son, John E. Leland, of this city, also by one brother, W. E. Leland, who was associated with him in business.

Arthur G. Smith of Hardwick and Miss Elizabeth E. Bliss were married Wednesday evening by the Rev. L. F. Reed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bliss, parents of the bride on Winter street. Mr. Smith is a clothing merchant in Hardwick and was for several years in the store of the A. J. Parwell company in this city. The bride is a graduate of Montpelier Seminary and was for some time stenographer in the office of Jones Brothers at Barre. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Thursday for a carriage drive through the northern part of the State.

Mr. L. Lamplie, owner of the poor, makes strenuous objection to the practice of burying the bodies of dead horses in the grave yard at the city farm and leaving them unburied. In future the burial expenses of such animals will be three dollars, payable strictly in advance.

A letter was received Friday by State Attorney Benjamin Bates from Dr. R. H. Stone of the State laboratory at Burlington, which stated that an examination of the internal organs of Daniel Cardell of East Warren, showed no trace of poisoning and that Mr. Cardell undoubtedly died from apoplexy. This ends the case.

August, widow of Hiram B. Cross, died Thursday night at her home on Hard street, aged 77 years. For several years Mrs. Cross had been in poor health, but paralysis was the immediate cause of death. She leaves two sisters, Miss Mary B. Plisk of this city and Mrs. C. E. Gay of Barton Landing, also one brother, the Rev. P. B. Plisk of Plainfield. Funeral services were held at the late home of W. Richmond's—Harold Morse was

Washington County. Montpelier. The funeral of Jerome W. Leland was held at ten o'clock Saturday morning at the home of the Rev. W. A. Davidson of Burlington officiating. Mr. Leland died Wednesday night of a complication of diseases, after an illness of two months. He was a well known and a native of Montpelier. Mr. Leland came to Berlin to reside 34 years ago, and for the past 20 years had conducted a milk route in this city, being the pioneer in that business. He is survived by a wife and one son, John E. Leland, of this city, also by one brother, W. E. Leland, who was associated with him in business.

Arthur G. Smith of Hardwick and Miss Elizabeth E. Bliss were married Wednesday evening by the Rev. L. F. Reed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bliss, parents of the bride on Winter street. Mr. Smith is a clothing merchant in Hardwick and was for several years in the store of the A. J. Parwell company in this city. The bride is a graduate of Montpelier Seminary and was for some time stenographer in the office of Jones Brothers at Barre. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Thursday for a carriage drive through the northern part of the State.

Mr. L. Lamplie, owner of the poor, makes strenuous objection to the practice of burying the bodies of dead horses in the grave yard at the city farm and leaving them unburied. In future the burial expenses of such animals will be three dollars, payable strictly in advance.

A letter was received Friday by State Attorney Benjamin Bates from Dr. R. H. Stone of the State laboratory at Burlington, which stated that an examination of the internal organs of Daniel Cardell of East Warren, showed no trace of poisoning and that Mr. Cardell undoubtedly died from apoplexy. This ends the case.

August, widow of Hiram B. Cross, died Thursday night at her home on Hard street, aged 77 years. For several years Mrs. Cross had been in poor health, but paralysis was the immediate cause of death. She leaves two sisters, Miss Mary B. Plisk of this city and Mrs. C. E. Gay of Barton Landing, also one brother, the Rev. P. B. Plisk of Plainfield. Funeral services were held at the late home of W. Richmond's—Harold Morse was

Washington County. Montpelier. The funeral of Jerome W. Leland was held at ten o'clock Saturday morning at the home of the Rev. W. A. Davidson of Burlington officiating. Mr. Leland died Wednesday night of a complication of diseases, after an illness of two months. He was a well known and a native of Montpelier. Mr. Leland came to Berlin to reside 34 years ago, and for the past 20 years had conducted a milk route in this city, being the pioneer in that business. He is survived by a wife and one son, John E. Leland, of this city, also by one brother, W. E. Leland, who was associated with him in business.

Arthur G. Smith of Hardwick and Miss Elizabeth E. Bliss were married Wednesday evening by the Rev. L. F. Reed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bliss, parents of the bride on Winter street. Mr. Smith is a clothing merchant in Hardwick and was for several years in the store of the A. J. Parwell company in this city. The bride is a graduate of Montpelier Seminary and was for some time stenographer in the office of Jones Brothers at Barre. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Thursday for a carriage drive through the northern part of the State.

Mr. L. Lamplie, owner of the poor, makes strenuous objection to the practice of burying the bodies of dead horses in the grave yard at the city farm and leaving them unburied. In future the burial expenses of such animals will be three dollars, payable strictly in advance.

A letter was received Friday by State Attorney Benjamin Bates from Dr. R. H. Stone of the State laboratory at Burlington, which stated that an examination of the internal organs of Daniel Cardell of East Warren, showed no trace of poisoning and that Mr. Cardell undoubtedly died from apoplexy. This ends the case.

August, widow of Hiram B. Cross, died Thursday night at her home on Hard street, aged 77 years. For several years Mrs. Cross had been in poor health, but paralysis was the immediate cause of death. She leaves two sisters, Miss Mary B. Plisk of this city and Mrs. C. E. Gay of Barton Landing, also one brother, the Rev. P. B. Plisk of Plainfield. Funeral services were held at the late home of W. Richmond's—Harold Morse was

BURLINGTON

Memorial services were held in the Methodist Church Sunday, the Rev. W. C. Allen presiding at the service. The church was draped with black and bunting. The choir rendered appropriate music and Miss Emily Gillette sang a solo. Mrs. Memorial of St. Albans, held in the Academy hall, Wednesday afternoon. Thursday the Memorial day address will be given by the Rev. Mr. Rowley of the Congregational Church at North Craftsbury. Mrs. Sawyer passed a part of her week in Burlington. Henry Smith is very ill. Benjamin Hoyt has taken possession of the store lately purchased by G. N. Amosworth.

North Troy. Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hammond started Sunday for the Jamestown exposition. They will also visit their daughter, Mrs. Varnum of Athens, Va. Mrs. J. H. Hunsinger is very low at his home in day with a complication of diseases, and his recovery is not expected. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ladd were visiting in Sutton. Q. and vicinity the later part of last week. Mrs. Kimball of Montpelier, Mass., is here again visiting her parents, or father, Col. Tracy, to resume his duties at the customs office in a few days. The Whitcomb drama corps played in the village Sunday.

Derby. Adam Robinson, little daughter, Abbie, is very ill with pneumonia. Henry Schofield fell from a roller Saturday and was taken up to the hospital. He had received a serious injury, but has proved only a very severe sprain. Memorial day exercises are to be held at Derby Line today. The school children have a part. Miss Mary Harris of East Burke is visiting in town this week. Forty years ago her father was a merchant in Derby. She and her brother are now in the mercantile business at East Burke. She has also been superintendent of schools and had other responsible offices there. Mrs. A. B. Hodge, passed several days in Coventry, her native town, last week, and attended the Orleans county W. C. T. U. convention. The annual meeting of the Congregational Church and society was held last evening in the church. Viola Webb, daughter of Mr. F. B. Cobb, at Mrs. Donaldson Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Forest Dow will return to New York this week. News of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Silver, at East Orange, N. J., has been received here.

Washington County. Montpelier. The funeral of Jerome W. Leland was held at ten o'clock Saturday morning at the home of the Rev. W. A. Davidson of Burlington officiating. Mr. Leland died Wednesday night of a complication of diseases, after an illness of two months. He was a well known and a native of Montpelier. Mr. Leland came to Berlin to reside 34 years ago, and for the past 20 years had conducted a milk route in this city, being the pioneer in that business. He is survived by a wife and one son, John E. Leland, of this city, also by one brother, W. E. Leland, who was associated with him in business.

Arthur G. Smith of Hardwick and Miss Elizabeth E. Bliss were married Wednesday evening by the Rev. L. F. Reed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bliss, parents of the bride on Winter street. Mr. Smith is a clothing merchant in Hardwick and was for several years in the store of the A. J. Parwell company in this city. The bride is a graduate of Montpelier Seminary and was for some time stenographer in the office of Jones Brothers at Barre. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Thursday for a carriage drive through the northern part of the State.

Mr. L. Lamplie, owner of the poor, makes strenuous objection to the practice of burying the bodies of dead horses in the grave yard at the city farm and leaving them unburied. In future the burial expenses of such animals will be three dollars, payable strictly in advance.

A letter was received Friday by State Attorney Benjamin Bates from Dr. R. H. Stone of the State laboratory at Burlington, which stated that an examination of the internal organs of Daniel Cardell of East Warren, showed no trace of poisoning and that Mr. Cardell undoubtedly died from apoplexy. This ends the case.

August, widow of Hiram B. Cross, died Thursday night at her home on Hard street, aged 77 years. For several years Mrs. Cross had been in poor health, but paralysis was the immediate cause of death. She leaves two sisters, Miss Mary B. Plisk of this city and Mrs. C. E. Gay of Barton Landing, also one brother, the Rev. P. B. Plisk of Plainfield. Funeral services were held at the late home of W. Richmond's—Harold Morse was

Washington County. Montpelier. The funeral of Jerome W. Leland was held at ten o'clock Saturday morning at the home of the Rev. W. A. Davidson of Burlington officiating. Mr. Leland died Wednesday night of a complication of diseases, after an illness of two months. He was a well known and a native of Montpelier. Mr. Leland came to Berlin to reside 34 years ago, and for the past 20 years had conducted a milk route in this city, being the pioneer in that business. He is survived by a wife and one son, John E. Leland, of this city, also by one brother, W. E. Leland, who was associated with him in business.

Arthur G. Smith of Hardwick and Miss Elizabeth E. Bliss were married Wednesday evening by the Rev. L. F. Reed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bliss, parents of the bride on Winter street. Mr. Smith is a clothing merchant in Hardwick and was for several years in the store of the A. J. Parwell company in this city. The bride is a graduate of Montpelier Seminary and was for some time stenographer in the office of Jones Brothers at Barre. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Thursday for a carriage drive through the northern part of the State.

Mr. L. Lamplie, owner of the poor, makes strenuous objection to the practice of burying the bodies of dead horses in the grave yard at the city farm and leaving them unburied. In future the burial expenses of such animals will be three dollars, payable strictly in advance.

A letter was received Friday by State Attorney Benjamin Bates from Dr. R. H. Stone of the State laboratory at Burlington, which stated that an examination of the internal organs of Daniel Cardell of East Warren, showed no trace of poisoning and that Mr. Cardell undoubtedly died from apoplexy. This ends the case.

August, widow of Hiram B. Cross, died Thursday night at her home on Hard street, aged 77 years. For several years Mrs. Cross had been in poor health, but paralysis was the immediate cause of death. She leaves two sisters, Miss Mary B. Plisk of this city and Mrs. C. E. Gay of Barton Landing, also one brother, the Rev. P. B. Plisk of Plainfield. Funeral services were held at the late home of W. Richmond's—Harold Morse was

Washington County. Montpelier. The funeral of Jerome W. Leland was held at ten o'clock Saturday morning at the home of the Rev. W. A. Davidson of Burlington officiating. Mr. Leland died Wednesday night of a complication of diseases, after an illness of two months. He was a well known and a native of Montpelier. Mr. Leland came to Berlin to reside 34 years ago, and for the past 20 years had conducted a milk route in this city, being the pioneer in that business. He is survived by a wife and one son, John E. Leland, of this city, also by one brother, W. E. Leland, who was associated with him in business.

Arthur G. Smith of Hardwick and Miss Elizabeth E. Bliss were married Wednesday evening by the Rev. L. F. Reed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bliss, parents of the bride on Winter street. Mr. Smith is a clothing merchant in Hardwick and was for several years in the store of the A. J. Parwell company in this city. The bride is a graduate of Montpelier Seminary and was for some time stenographer in the office of Jones Brothers at Barre. Mr. and Mrs.